Avenging last year's hiking strap incident, Bill Wilson, Carol and Aaron Holland sailed away with the Glimmerglass Regatta. John Baker co-skippering with Chris Wilson with Joy forward were second. Jonas Kelly and Don Stehle were third. The 7 races in nice southerlyish breezes had 4 different winners, keeping a fresh face regularly at the front of the fleet.

Glimmerglass has traditions. This year some of these traditions were in place, some were not. Notable was the nice breeze we had. Also tradition, the food, beverage and social scene was excellent. Heidi and her gang had great meals...hot egg frittatas for breakfast, and the awesome (truly epic!) hors d'oeuvres spread prior to the chicken BBQ on Saturday. Ommegang Brewery (located in Cooperstown) provided a sampling of their world class Belgian Brews to compliment the repast. The bonfire each night was the place to keep warm, get s'mores and exchange tales of greatness.

Glimmerglass always offers opportunities for exceptional performances. Jerry Phelan running a big chunk of the first race in front, Dave Hudson going fast downwind in the fourth pressing for the lead, Jonas Kelly repeatedly working the west shore, Baker and Chris Wilson sharing the tiller and never missing a shift, Mark Weider sticking to the rhumbline and moving from 3rd to 1st (very nice!), Jim Gindling and JT Fahy legging out the start and holding on in the 3rd.

The Glimmerglass also has Flying Scots and a very competitive Buccaneer Fleet. Thistle sailors can become jaded. Great boat, great competition, great people. What's not to like? That said, I think it's safe to say the Thistlers learned a little from the Buc sailors on Sunday. ARRRRR!
